

Future Architect Introduces New Loan Operation Support System at The Toho Bank

Achieving more efficient loan operations based on “FutureBANK”

Future Architect, Inc.
TOKYO, Japan, March 8, 2024 / Future Architect, Inc.

Future Architect, Inc. (Headquarters: Shinagawa-ku, Tokyo; President: SHINGU Yuki), a main operating company of Future Corporation (Securities Code: 4722), hereby announces that it introduced the “FutureBANK” strategic operational system at The Toho Bank, Ltd. (Headquarters: Fukushima City, Fukushima; President: SATO Minoru), and started full operation of this system in January 2024 in line with the migration of the Bank’s core system.

As an IT strategic partner of The Toho Bank, Future Architect has been promoting the introduction of a new loan operation support system since April 2020. In this project, in order to strengthen the TSUBASA Alliance and improve the efficiency of loan operations, The Toho Bank migrated to new operations, based on “FutureBANK,” a strategic operational system introduced at The Chiba Bank, Ltd., Daishi Hokuetsu Bank, Ltd., and North Pacific Bank, Ltd., which are member banks of the “TSUBASA Alliance.”*

Based on its track record with the TSUBASA Alliance member banks, Future Architect will promote a common framework for the introduction of “FutureBANK” to improve development efficiency and help maximize alliance synergies by unifying the flow of branch office operations.
